

Meet the Kids Club Kampala Team Uganda

Samuel Wambayo

Sam is the director of Kids Club Kampala Uganda. Sam oversees the day to day running of Kids Club Kampala, does the bulk of the administrative work and runs the Kids Club activities at Katanga centre. On top of this Sam is studying Commerce and IT at Sikkim Manipal University.

Juliet Wakida

Juliet is the crafts co-ordinator for Kids Club Kampala. She oversees the implementation of our craft projects and women's programme within our Kids Club Kampala centres. Juliet is married to Fred Wakida, our advisor, and has three children.

Nicolus Yiga

Nicolus is one of our Kids Club Kampala volunteers. He works each Saturday with two of our Kids Club Kampala centres, Namavundu and Katanga. Nicolus is also implementing our football project for the older boys who attend Kids Club. Nicolus is married to Harriet and has a young baby.

Kids Club Kampala also has a dedicated team of 20 volunteers carrying out Kids Club activities at each of our different centres every week.

Meet the Kids Club Kampala Team United Kingdom

Olivia Barker

Olivia works for Kids Club Kampala in the UK. She co-ordinates fundraising and publicity in the UK for the projects in Uganda and she travels to Uganda at least once a year to work for Kids Club. Olivia is studying Economic Development at Manchester University.

Corrie Latham

Corrie works for Kids Club Kampala in the UK and Ireland. She co-ordinates fundraising and publicity for Kids Club Kampala Uganda. Corrie travels to Uganda at least once a year to work with Kids Club. She is studying Psychology at Aberdeen University.

Alisdair Pert

Alisdair is a Kids Club Kampala UK trustee. Alisdair has volunteered with Kids Club Kampala in Uganda several times. He also fundraises for Kids Club in the UK. Ali is studying Music and Electronics at Glasgow University.